Seniors of "51"

Together we seven have reached our goal;
No longer for us will the school bell toll,
Out in the world we'll now take our place;
Our education will help us to set our pace.

Calmly we introduce our Senior gang,
Who leaves Muntorn High with a sorrowful pang.
Merrill, our handsome basketball star,
Will always and forever be best by far.

Jimmy, that lad with personality plus,
In typing guess who makes all the fuss?
Myrna commonly known as the giggling flirt
Kind of dazed with bookkeeping but with boys she's alert.

Maxine is sweet and the quiet type
But when she's with Gary there's never a gripe.
Dorothy, that gal with stars in her eyes,
Who's always a treat and a pal to the guys.

Smokey, that lad with the wonderful smile,
His trips to Eagle were just for a while.
Julia, our gal with the delicate brain
We wish many years for Lefty to remain.

Prophecy

Class of "51" Revealed to Smokey ("Mat") Matheson

As my team went out on the field to play the Eagle Eagles, I began thinking of my classmates from dear old M. H. S. and how we used to wait until we could tromp Eagle in the ground.

As I sat there daydreaming, I began to see visions of Jimmy ("Wic") Lucerne, now a star basketball player with the Phillips 66 team in Memphis, Minnesota.

Next, I see Merrill ("Moe") Sinclair, now a big Admiral in the U. S. Navy. He and his wife Cookie have four little swabies.

Then I see Dorothy Ginther, now married to Gene Lynn and living in a very high toned place in Chicago.

Also, I see Maxine Hughes, now a secretary to Gary Wiltungham, her husband, who is now owner of the D & R G. W. Railroad. They have two adorable little "Hams" now.

Then I see Myrna Sifers, now head of a large X-ray school in California. She and Vernon Ashcraft finally after ten years are getting married.

Last of all, I see Julia Walther, still going with Lefty Sullivan. She is now a ticket agent for Mid-Western Air Lines. Lefty still has hopes of catching her.

The game ended-----I came out of a daze; I was sitting in the grand stand, and my wife, Georgia Harris, was pulling at me to leave. It was then I realized that I haun't seen any of the game, but Georgia told me that the Panthers beat Eagle.

Class Will

We, the Seniors of 1951, being of sound mind, body, and memory (we hope), would like to have it known to all of the present student body our last will and testimony. The things we are about to pass on are gifts we have acquired through years in the school of "experience". Treasure these tokens, as they are momentums of our precious days at M. H. S.

We give to the Freshmen all of our pulse and charm as they haven't been on this earth long enough yet to acquire some of their own.

To the Sophomores, we pass on all of our good times, old boy tricks and last of all the chewing gum stuck under the study hall seats.

And to the Juniors, we will our excellent grades since there is no one flying that they could do anything in the line of help such as old texts, word books, or an answer book or two.

I, Smokey Matheson, will my graceful figure on the basketball floor to George Roybal. Take care of it, George; it's the only one I have.

I, Merrill Sinclair, will my dancing ability to Edith Meyer and my ability to grow a beard. Wow! The women Ralph.

I, Jimmy Lucerne, will my ability to play basketball and win the awards to Adrian Fredricksson. Keep those awards coming Adrian.

I, Julia Walther, will my ability to get along with the teachers to Bette Hoaglund. Take good care of it, Betty. It may come in handy.

I, Dorothy Gantner will my love letters to Marlene Grant. Keep the love light burning, Marlene.

I, Maxine Hughes, will my ability to get along with people to Ronnie Nelson. Hold that temper, Ron!

I, Maxine Hughes, will my flirting ability to Jeanie Bergquist. Use it wisely and it may come in handy.
